Nominations for one of the most prestigious awards available in Richfield, the Gene and Mary Jacobsen Outstanding Citizen Award, are now being sought by the Richfield Human Rights Commission.

This annual award honors a family, group, organization, business, or individual that lives or works in Richfield. The Human Rights Commission gives the award to recognize outstanding community service, a commitment to human rights, or efforts to improve our community and make it a better place for all.

The nomination should include enough information to explain why the nominee(s) should be considered for an award that recognizes the “outstanding citizen” in Richfield. The Commission bases their decision on the written information that is included in the nomination.

For nomination materials, visit the HRC webpage at http://www.cityofrichfield.org/city-government/commissions-and-boards/human-rights-commission or contact Susie Kalmi, City of Richfield, at 612-861-9876.

Completed nomination forms must be received by the Human Rights Commission by Thursday, April 30. Submit forms in person at 6700 Portland Ave, by fax at 612-866-0297, or by email to bstursa@hotmail.com.
